Product Description:

The OX-ON Flexible Supreme 1606 is an exclusive and extremely comfortable glove for spring and fall season and working in a cool environment. Whether you need to lift, build or work in the garden, you will get an extremely robust and lightweight all-round glove. The palm and fingers are coated with nitrile foam, which helps to ensure an extremely soft and flexible glove. The knit is made of acrylic, making the glove elastic and gives you an exceptionally good fit and a warm feeling. The Flexible Supreme 1606 glove ensures top comfort, perfectly durable fit and the sublime dexterity.

Flexible Supreme 1606 is the right choice for high quality outdoor use in spring and fall, but is also suitable for working indoors in the winter in cold conditions.

This OX-ON season glove is silicone-free.
