Product Description:

The OX-ON Worker Supreme 2607 is an exclusive technician's glove for working with e.g. assembly, simple industry, in warehousing or even in the garden. A glove that is soft and flexible and gives the best fit possible, which means it can be used for long periods without any problem. Originally called the OX-ON Nippon, the glove that introduced new standards for technician's gloves in industry. Palm, thumbs and fingertips are made in soft goatskin and retain good dexterity. A thin cotton lining is included in the palm for extra comfort. Provides great mobility and flexibility. Velcro closure at the wrist ensures a well-functioning glove with ideal fit. Every detail for Worker Supreme 2607 is intended to provide a high performance quality glove.
