Product Description:

The OX-ON Worker Supreme 2604 is a quality glove for metalworking or machine operators.

A sturdy glove with split leather for top protection from heat and sparks. The 14 cm gauntlet cuff protects well up the forearm. The Worker Supreme 2604 is a sturdy work glove with thick cowhide in the palm, thumb and index finger add to the high level of safety. Great fit thanks to the cotton lining, a pleasure to wear for jobs that take time to do.

Quality is reflected in every detail, right down to the Kevlar thread, which is stronger and more durable than ordinary threads.
