Product Description:

The OX-ON Knitted Comfort 13302 is a tight-knitted interlock glove ideal when dexterity is needed when working with assembly, industry, packing or cool environments.

Made of 100% cotton, which feels incredibly comfortable wearing, while breathable and absorbs sweat and moisture. The palm is coated with mini dots to create a rough surface for a firm, safe grip.

The Knitted Comfort 13302 has stitching on the back of the hand, which helps create a good fit along with the stitching on the wrist. This model is an extremely useful work glove with good dexterity and a safe and sturdy grip.
