Product Description:

The OX-ON Flexible Basic 1003 is the glove that ensures you have a solid grip when working professionally with gardening, paving, agricultural or contracting tasks. The knit is made of polyester, which means a comfortable fit and a high durability. The palm surface is coated with latex in a pattern that helps give the glove its safe grip. Flexible Basic 1003 is a strong bet for an economically attractive glove for professionals working outdoors. It combines comfort, functionality and full flexibility, while providing protection for fingers and palms.
