Product Description:

OX-ON Cut Supreme 9602 is an extremely comfortable and cut-resistant (cut level C) quality glove for you, who work with sharp objects in connection with for example installation or industry and construction tasks. The glove is lined with Kevlar, which provides additional protection for your hands.

The glove gives you great comfort and flexibility, and the slip-on feature makes it easy to put it on and take it off quickly. The back of the hand is made of cotton, which gives you good breathability. Palm and fingertips are provided with goatskin, which makes the glove both flexible and soft and which at the same time gives you good dexterity. Cut Supreme 9602 is a comfortable and safe cut-resistant glove, which you can use in many contexts.
