Product Description:

The OX-ON Flexible Comfort 1309 is designed for anyone who needs a flexible and comfortable glove, whether for private or professional tasks such as gardening, farming, or general yard work. The glove is knitted from polyester to ensure a perfect fit. The OX-ON glove features latex foam coating on the fingers and palm, offering soft and pleasant comfort, making it comfortable to wear even for extended periods. The Flexible glove is also ideal for lifting light materials or handling small assembly tasks. It is lightweight and fits snugly on your hand, ensuring a secure grip and excellent fingertip sensitivity at all times.
