Product Description:

OX-ON Flexible Advanced 1905 is a top-quality all-rounder. It is suitable for contact with food and a touch function has also been added so you can operate your mobile phone, tablet and other displays without taking the glove off. .

The glove is extremely durable and fits as if it were made for you. The fit is exquisite and extremely comfortable to wear day after day—no matter what your profession may be. The glove is knitted nylon and elastane, giving you a unique breathability, while the flexibility and comfort are unsurpassed. The palm and fingers have been coated with nitrile foam in special quality that allows you to maintain fingertip touch sensitivity and a precise and secure grip. The Advanced 1905 glove is OekoTex certified, which is your guarantee that the glove does not contain chemicals or dyes that are hazardous to health or the environment. The glove has also been treated with the Sanitized process so it feels fresher for a longer time and protects you from bacteria and perspiration odors. The durability is extended by the fact that the glove can be washed up
